About LACHS

The Los Angeles City Historical Society was founded in 1976. The mission of the LACHS is to research, study and disseminate knowledge of the rich and diverse multicultural history of the city of Los Angeles, to serve as a resource of historical information; and to assist in the preservation of the city's historic records.

The LACHS accomplishes these purposes through a variety of activities including:

- Public lectures—including the annual series of Northrop Lectures (co-sponsored by the History Department of the Los Angeles Public Library) and other programs;
- Field trips to historic sites and areas;
- A website, newsletter and informative bulletins of events and news;
- Publications—including the two-volume Development of Los Angeles City Government: An Institutional Memory, 1850-2000 (2007) as well as other books and articles;
- Named Friend of the City Archives by the City of Los Angeles to assist the City Clerk's Records Management Division to preserve LA's archives and records and make them more accessible to the public and researchers.
