

Preview of
"Growth, Graft, Grandeur: Three Los Angeles Mayors"

The 18th Annual Marie Northrop Lecture Series
Co-sponsored by

The Los Angeles City Historical Society &
History Department, Los Angeles Public Library

At the Mark Taper Auditorium of the Richard J. Riordan Central Library
Please note: the 2010 lectures take place on
Saturdays at 2:00 pm

Reception and door prizes follow lectures

Saturday, March 13

James Ingram
Historian, Author

Mayor George E. Cryer
1921 to 1929

Saturday, May 15

John Buntin
Historian, Author,

Mayor Frank L. Shaw
1933 to 1938

"LA Noir: The Struggle for the Soul of America's Most Seductive City"

Saturday, July 17

Tom Sitton
Historian, Author,

Mayor Fletcher Bowron
1938 to 1953

"Los Angeles Transformed: Fletcher Bowron's Urban Reform Revival"

The Richard J. Riordan Central Library is located at 630 West Fifth Street (between Grand Avenue and Flower Street)

This facility is handicap-accessible. Validated parking is available for $1.00 (between 1pm and 5pm only) at the 524 South Flower Street garage (validation at library desk with library card, obtainable that day.) Check www.lapl.org for more information, or call (213) 228-7000. The Metro Blue Line and Metro Red Line both have stops near Central Library, and most buses coming downtown stop near the Central Library; check www.metro.net.

Free and open to the public, and made possible in part by LACHS member contributions